

CORRI D. FETMAN, ESQ.

Chicago's "Love Lawyer," Corri Fetman, has quickly grown in her field to become a renowned divorce and celebrity relationship expert by frequently contributing to nationally broadcasted radio and television networks as well as print media nation-wide. Over the years, she has made a name for herself in the legal industry, specializing in: divorce law, child custody/visitation, civil litigation, family law, children's legal issues, prenuptial agreements, and corporate law.

Corri was first coined the "Love Lawyer" by Playboy.com, where she was the designated expert who dished on divorce and relationships in a monthly advice column. This former Playboy model, who is known for breaking down conventional barriers, received much notoriety for her famous billboard, "Life's Short. Get a Divorce." and since has become very well-known for her humorous perspective, versatile advice, and unsurpassed wit.

Corri has over 30 years of professional legal experience specializing in family law and high profile litigation, divorce and family law matters. Having made appearances on such nationally-aired shows as Good Morning America, MSNBC, CNN, FOX, WGN, Inside Edition and other radio and television stations, Corri brings a diverse, commanding and highly qualified background to all her appearances, whether in court, on television and radio as a guest or commentator, as a guest star in TV shows, or as a columnist for Playboy magazine and Playboy.com.

Corri's wide array of knowledge on a myriad of topics allows Corri readily able to discuss the legal implications of top news stories, celebrity divorces and stories covering everything from legal issues, cohabitation, relationship advice, to divorce and relationship tips and much more.

Some Suggestions For Corri to Comment On:

Pop-Culture and Celebrity Divorces & Relationships - Corri frequently analyzes popular divorces in the media as well as contributes her professional opinion to highly talked about celebrity relationships from a legal standpoint.

Valuable Tips in Divorce, Litigation, Custody and Family Law Matters - As the divorce rate has increased in the US over the years, and now deeply affect almost every demographic across the board, each day thousands of new viewers are searching for the kind of relationship expertise that Corri has become accustomed to giving on-air. Corri's unique perspective, experience and pragmatic advice always assures that viewers gain valuable and comprehensive tips.

Newsworthy Trials in the Media - Corri has been a guest on numerous nationally broadcasted TV and radio shows to analyze and dissect some of the most talked-about trials of the past ten years. Her 30 plus years of expertise in law combined with her dynamic media personality gives Corri an unforgettable edge in on-air interviews.

cfalawfirm.com

